

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
1 The hidden language of clothing	15
Nursery rhymes, fabric and clothing	16
Rhymes about clothing and class	21
Rhymes with an advisory or cautionary (clothing) theme	23
Rhymes about clothing poverty	27
2 From democratisation to fast fashion	37
Technological change and the cotton industry	41
Developments in the making and retailing of ready-made clothing	46
Adoption of the sewing machine	51
Retailing revolution (I)	52
The democratisation of shoe production	55
Retailing revolution (II)	56
Democratising colour	59
3 Sustainability and clothing in context	63
The emergence of fashion	64
The road to fast fashion	66
The backlash against fast fashion	70
The fabric of fashion conundrum	76
Transparency on the label	80
The use of fur and feathers	83
4 The human factor: Clothing, growth and alternative economic paradigms	91
'Sweating' and the fight for a minimum wage	92
The move to outsourcing	97
The 'economics' of fast fashion	105

5	Clothing, nature and the environment	111
	Clothing in pastoral narratives	112
	Nature fights back	124
	Nature and the Arts and Crafts Movement	128
6	Philosophies of dress	139
	Oscar Wilde: 'The Philosophy of Dress'	140
	Mary Eliza Haweis: The Art of Dress	142
	Eric Gill: Clothes	144
	Conclusion	151
	Notes	167
	Bibliography	191
	Index	199